INDUSTRY ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

IAI will be increasingly more skilled than humans at performing human tasks. Where will this lead?

Increased automation

Learn, adapt, solve problems and achieve goals in a complex Industry environment

The near FUTURE can be predicted from historical experience..

LINEAR VS. EXPONENTIAL GROWTH

Linear vs. Exponential: Linear growth is steady; exponential growth becomes explosive

Increased device failure prediction from minutes to hours

Performance optimization and utilization of analysis in decision-making

Predict when and where the device may fail

Detect the bottlenecks of production

Avoid the downtime of machines and reduce maintenance costs

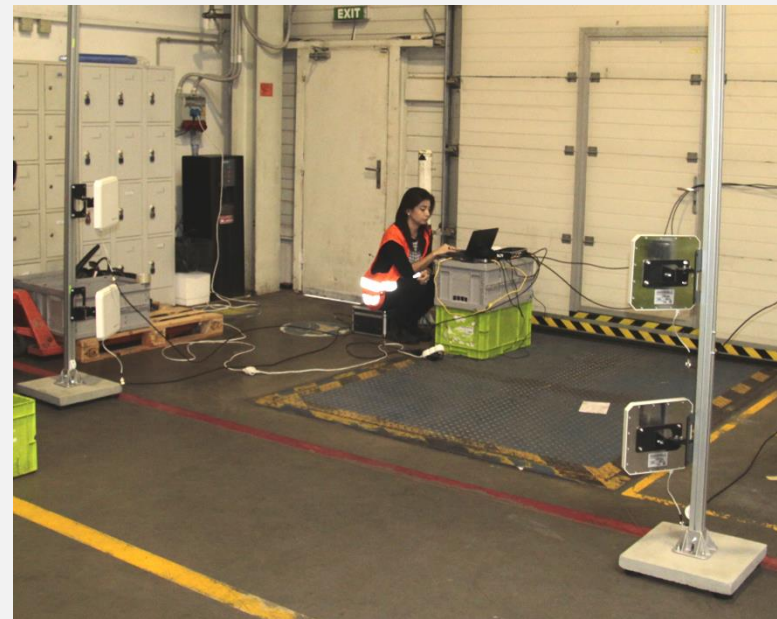

Analyze in depth the causes of failure of machines, human errors

Maximize the quality of production

Coordination and feedback from business, production plans and reality
