Technology Day on Research, Development & Innovation:

Searching for synergies between the Czech Republic, Belgium and Luxembourg

October 19, 2009 at 9:00 am
Ministry of Foreign Affairs,
Černín Palace,
Loretánské náměstí 5, Prague 1

The seminar will offer companies, research institutions and policy makers an expert level overview of the current Research, Development and Innovation landscape in the three countries in order to identify and foster possible synergies. Furthermore, the public research centres and research institutions will offer a deeper look into the sectorial developments in the fields of Advanced Materials, ICT and Health Sciences, while introducing their latest developments and indicating the potential for cooperation.
