Date: 9:00 – 18:00, 22 May 2014

Language: Simultaneous translation Czech-Korean

Allow us to invite you to a seminar organized by CzechInvest agency and the Korean Embassy in Prague, in cooperation with the Ministry of Industry and Trade of the Czech Republic, metropolitan city of Ulsan and Ulsan Technopark.

This seminar will focus on chemical industry in both countries, in particular on the development of technologies in this field and general conditions for research and development. Main speakers during the event will be, among others, Deputy Mayor of metropolitan city of Ulsan, Ambassador of Korean Republic in Prague Mr. Moon Hayong, Director of Ulsan Technopark Mr. Sung-Sup Rim or the Chairwoman of the Technology Agency of the Czech Republic Mrs. Rut Bizkova. The seminar will be moderated by the former Minister of the Environment and current chief adviser on the Ministry of the Environment of the Czech Republic Mr. Petr J. Kalas.

The seminar will be attended by approximately 30 representatives of Korean companies and partner institutions, and the premises will be prepared for subsequent B2B meetings in the afternoon after the presentations will have taken place. The Korean partners are arriving with profound interest in Czech chemical industry and a wish to establish new ties and partnerships which could take various forms beneficial for both sides. Simultaneous translation from Czech to Korean and vice versa will be available during the whole seminar. All the participants will be provided with refreshments during the event including a buffet lunch.

Participation on the seminar is free but only for registered attendants because of the limited capacity of the premises. For a binding registration, please send an e-mail to one of the following addresses: katerina.kynclova@czechinvest.org or roman.pasek@czechinvest.org. In the registration e-mail, please specify your full name, company name, phone number and your contact e-mail. Detailed programme of the event along with a list of participants from the Korean side will be sent to all the registered attendants with adequate advance before the seminar.
